IMCD to showcase new formulations for pharma and nutra markets at FCE Pharma 2025

Rotterdam, The Netherlands (5 June 2025) - IMCD Group ('IMCD' or the 'Company'), a global leading partner for the distribution and formulation of speciality chemicals and ingredients, will exhibit at FCE Pharma, a leading trade fair for the pharmaceutical industry in Latin America, which will take place from 10 to 12 June 2025 in São Paulo, Brazil.

In recent years, IMCD has invested in expanding its operations in Latin America, strengthening its presence in countries such as Argentina, Uruguay, Chile, Mexico, the Caribbean, Central America, Colombia, Peru and Ecuador. With the acquisition of strategic companies such as Blumos Group, the company is further expanding its technical and commercial service capacity in the region. Its portfolio comprehensively serves the API, excipients, nutraceuticals, agrochemicals and veterinary markets, with a special focus on the supply of excipients, an area in which IMCD stands out globally.

In particular, the company focuses on developing solutions that accelerate innovation and reduce the time spent on product development by its customers. With an applications laboratory located in Valinhos, São Paulo, IMCD helps developing solutions for the pharmaceutical, nutraceutical and veterinary markets, and provides expert technical support to its clients in Brazil and in the region.

In this edition of FCE Pharma, IMCD will present several innovative formulations and prototypes developed by its team of experts. These include:

- On-the-Go Vitamin Gel: Multivitamin in gel form containing vitamins B12, B2, B5, D, A and E in oral stick form.
- Beauty Fresh Drink: Functional drink with a collagen that promotes a potentiated effect on the skin providing more firmness and elasticity in association with a coenzyme Q10.
- Heart Health Sachet: Sachet that is easy to disperse in water, combining ingredients that help cardiovascular health by reducing cholesterol and replenishing coenzyme Q10 and vitamin B12.
- Vitamin C + Iron XR Tablet: Prolonged-release coated tablet combining vitamin C and microencapsulated iron, enhancing the mineral's effect on the body.
- Lip Moisturiser with Dexpanthenol: Lip moisturiser with dexpanthenol that helps care for the skin by providing a protective and moisturising effect.

According to Patrick Thuring, Business Director Latin America and Head Pharmaceuticals Brazil, at IMCD, "IMCD is committed to excellence, promoting innovative solutions to meet our customers' challenges. We believe that qualified technical support is fundamental and that's why, in addition to the expertise of our specialists and our diversified and complementary portfolio, our clients can also count on our laboratory and supply chain services as an extension of their own operations."

Save the date:

São Paulo Expo: Rodovia dos Imigrantes, km 1.5, Jabaquara, São Paulo, Brazil.

Stand: D17 from 10th to 12th June, 11am to 7pm.
